After my discussion on Tuesday, these call volumes are unacceptable. 200 per day is the number and we better start hitting it.

Subject: Clean up of InsideSales

All,

Today I am cleaning up InsideSales. From this day forward, I will be transferring better leads based on effort. If you are not dialing, you will not be getting leads transferred to you. Effort equates to success and the effort over the last two weeks hasn't been there. I am keeping my eye on the statistics today so I know where everyone is.
